Ally Financial, Inc., et al., 11 Civ. 7010 (collectively, the "Tranche 4 Actions")

Dear Judge Cote:

We write on behalf of Plaintiff Federal Housing Finance Agency ("FHFA") to update the Court on the status of the parties' efforts regarding the production, identification, and stipulation of Loan Files and Guidelines relating to FHFA's Sample Loans in the Tranche 3 and Tranche 4 Actions (together, the "Actions"). ¹

Status Of Loan File Production

As reflected on Exhibit 1, approximately 82% of the Sample Loan Files at issue in the Tranche 3 and 4 Actions have been produced and identified by FHFA's vendors. The parties are now focusing their efforts on Sample Loan Files in those Securitizations in the Tranche 3 and 4 Actions for which more than five of the Sample Loan Files have either not yet been produced or identified (the "Remaining Sample Loan Files"). Based on FHFA's current information, there are approximately 4,755 such Loan Files. Upon exhausting the available sources for these

² Exhibit 1 reflects the Sample Loan Files that FHFA's vendors have identified as being produced as of April 30, 2013. There may be recently produced or identified Loan Files that are not yet reflected in the exhibits to this letter as they have not yet been processed by FHFA's vendors.

Remaining Sample Loan Files over the coming weeks, FHFA will promptly supplement its samples where necessary.

FHFA believes that a number of these Remaining Sample Loan Files may be in the possession of the originators identified on Exhibit 2.³ While FHFA continues to seek production from these originators, FHFA and Defendants continue to agree that, as many of these originators only originated a small number of Sample Loans (and sometimes only a single such loan), the parties should concurrently secure production of the Remaining Sample Loan Files from servicers. Exhibit 4 identifies the servicers from which FHFA believes many of the Remaining Sample Loan Files can be obtained.⁴

Obstacles To The Production Or Identification Of Sample Loan Files

Despite the parties' extensive efforts, there are three reasons why the production and identification of the Remaining Sample Loan Files has not been completed.

First, as reflected on Exhibit 5, two servicers that are Defendants and/or their affiliates have not completed production. Bank of America was identified as a potential servicer for Securitizations from which there are 171 Remaining Sample Loan Files. Bank of America is searching for all Remaining Sample Loan Files. Bank of America has stated that it intends to complete production by May 3, 2013. JPMorgan (including Chase Home Finance) is searching for up to approximately 192 Remaining Sample Loan Files that it serviced, up to 16 of which relate to the ABFC 2006-HE1 Securitization in the Bank of America litigation, but which were not subpoenaed by Defendants. Although requested by FHFA, JPMorgan has not provided a date by which it expects to complete production, and is conditioning production on a meet-and-confer with FHFA concerning reimbursement of fees and expenses. This is a request that FHFA views as improper.

Second, despite extensive meet-and-confer efforts by FHFA and Defendants, the servicers identified on Exhibit 4 are not making timely productions of Loan Files and providing necessary identifying information.⁶ These servicers include the following:

Ocwen Financial Corp./Litton Loan Servicing may possess up to 2,709 Remaining Sample Loan Files. Some of these Loan Files may have already been produced, but Ocwen has failed thus far to provide the manifests or crosswalk information necessary to match the ³ As FHFA and other Defendants previously advised the Court, the parties are likely unable to obtain certain Loan Files from the Originators set forth on Exhibit 3 because, among other things, the respective originators are defunct, have confirmed that they have destroyed their documents, or have performed reasonable searches and have been unable to locate the outstanding Sample Loan Files.

⁴ In certain cases, these servicers may also not be able to produce the outstanding Sample Loan Files because, among other things, they are unable to locate them with available information or because Defendants only subpoenaed current servicers, which do not have loan files for borrowers whose files were closed out (i.e., paid off, foreclosure, etc.) before they were obtained by the current servicer.

⁵ Up to six Remaining Sample Loan Files relate to the CMLTI 2005-HE3 Securitization, which is at issue in the Citi Action.

produced loans (generally identified by servicer IDs) with the Sample Loans (identified by originator IDs from the loan tapes). Ocwen has also provided what it represents to be identifying information for productions on these drives. FHFA's vendor is still processing this information. FHFA cannot be sure that this information will allow it to actually identify all of the produced loans, however, as Ocwen has provided inadequate information in the past (e.g., in the UBS action). Moreover, FHFA's vendor has been unable to identify at least some loan files in recent Ocwen productions based on the information provided to date.

Homeward Residential may possess up to 545 Remaining Sample Loan Files; it has also produced a large number of loan files that currently cannot be identified. On April 19, 2013, Homeward told the parties that it was understaffed and overwhelmed with various document requests and would benefit from a prioritization of requests. On April 25, 2013, the parties asked Homeward to prioritize production of Remaining Sample Loan Files and identifying information for the Tranche 2 Actions, followed by production of that material for the Tranche 3 and 4 Actions. The parties have also asked Homeward to provide a timeline for producing each group of information.

OneWest Bank/IndyMac Bank, which may possess up to 573 Remaining Sample Loan Files, is in FDIC receivership. OneWest/FDIC required separate production agreements for each Defendant, a time consuming process that took several months. OneWest/FDIC has completed production to all defendants except Goldman Sachs. FHFA understands that although OneWest has collected the Goldman Sachs Loan Files, the FDIC is now insisting that it must review the Loan Files before producing them (something it has not done for any other Defendant), and will not commit to a firm production date. The FDIC also has been slow in providing information necessary for the parties to obtain access to IndyMac Bank documents contained in a Relativity database. Although access to the database was first discussed among the parties and raised with the Court in December 2012, the FDIC is still preparing a letter agreement for access to the database (which the FDIC requires in addition to a supplemental protective order), and only provided cost information for the database today. FHFA will review the cost information and will promptly seek to negotiate the letter agreement and supplemental protective order. FHFA may seek relief from the Court if the negotiations with the FDIC do not move quickly.

Third, while the parties are working cooperatively to obtain information that will allow them to identify Remaining Sample Loan Files produced by these and other servicers, FHFA does not believe manifest and crosswalk information will be forthcoming in all cases (such as for certain productions made by Homeward or Ocwen). In the event that Remaining Sample Loan Files cannot be identified through manifests or crosswalk information, it will become necessary for the unidentified files to be "cracked" to extract the information necessary to identify the Loan Files and match them to the Remaining Sample Loans (as was necessary for certain productions in the UBS case). Given the pre-trial schedule established by the Court, while FHFA has agreed to continue to work with Defendants to secure manifests and crosswalk information through this week, starting next week, FHFA will have no choice but to move to compel Defendants to "crack" servicer-produced Loans Files that cannot otherwise be identified. While FHFA reserves the right to seek such relief for all unidentified Loan Files, FHFA will specifically seek this relief if Remaining Sample Loan Files from Ocwen remain unidentified as of May 3, 2013, and if Remaining Sample Loan Files from Homeward remain unidentified as of May 10, 2013.

⁷ Ocwen recently produced four hard drives, one of which is corrupted and will need to be replaced. Ocwen has stated that it will produce a fifth hard drive today.

Status Of Loan File And Guideline Stipulation

As set forth below, FHFA is pleased to report that the parties have generally made substantial progress in stipulation to the best representation of Loan Files and Guidelines in the Tranche 3 and 4 actions.

Credit Suisse. FHFA and Credit Suisse have exchanged proposed stipulations to Loan File and Loan-Guideline matches in 32 out of 43 Securitizations; the parties have agreed as to the best representation currently available for 734 Loan Files and 219 Guidelines. To allow additional time to stipulate to additional Loan Files and Loan-Guideline matches, the parties request an extension until May 31, 2013.

Deutsche Bank. FHFA and Deutsche Bank have exchanged proposed stipulations to Loan File and Loan-Guideline matches for original sample loans in 35 out of 40 Securitizations; the parties have agreed to the best representation currently available for 1,555 Loan Files and 1,719 Guidelines. To allow additional time to stipulate to additional Loan Files and Loan-Guideline matches, the parties request an extension until May 31, 2013.

Goldman Sachs. FHFA and Goldman Sachs have exchanged proposed stipulations to Loan File and Loan-Guideline matches in 27 out of 40 Securitizations, and are exchanging proposals in the remaining 13 Securitizations today. Within these 27 Securitizations, the parties have agreed to the best representation currently available for 1,876 Loan Files and 1,916 Guidelines. To allow additional time to stipulate to additional Loan Files and Loan-Guideline matches, the parties request an extension until May 31, 2013.

Morgan Stanley. FHFA and Morgan Stanley have exchanged 2,073 proposed stipulations for Loan File and Loan-Guideline matches. The parties have agreed to the best representation currently available for 1,311 Loan Files and 658 Guidelines. To allow additional time to stipulate to additional Loan Files and Loan-Guideline matches, the parties request an extension until May 31, 2013.

BOA. FHFA has proposed stipulations to Loan File and Loan-Guideline matches for a total of 1,600 of 3,000 Sample Loans, and BOA has provided responses to 1,200 of FHFA's proposed stipulations. Of these 1,200 proposals, the parties have reached agreement as to the best representation currently available for 596 Loan Files and 698 Guidelines. With respect to the non-stipulated Loan Files and Guidelines among the 1,200 Sample Loans, the parties continue to work cooperatively to resolve the differences in their Loan File and Guideline matches, and believe additional stipulations will be reached in advance of the May 31, 2013 deadline.

Ally. FHFA has proposed Loan File stipulations for 2,092 Sample Loans, and Guideline stipulations for all 2,100 Sample Loans. The Ally defendants (as applicable) have proposed Loan File stipulations for 2,093 Sample Loans, and Guideline stipulations for 2,073 Sample Loans. To date, the parties have agreed on the best representation currently available of Loan Files for: (a) all 100 Sample Loans in eight of the 21 Securitizations; (b) at least 95 Sample

All statistics are as of 9:00 a.m. April 30, 2013. FHFA has been unable to evaluate Ally's April 29, 2013 proposals for five Securitizations or Ally's amendments to proposals that were exchanged in previous weeks.

Loans for 19 of the 21 Securitizations; and (c) 2,061 of all 2,100 Sample Loans. With respect to Guidelines, Ally informed FHFA for the first time yesterday that even where FHFA has agreed to stipulate to Ally's proposed Guidelines (1,568 out of 2,100 Sample Loans), Ally does not consider the parties in agreement unless there is also an agreement on the entire "set" of all guideline-related documents for each loan. To allow additional time to stipulate to additional Loan Files and Loan-Guideline matches, the parties request an extension until May 15, 2013.

HSBC. FHFA and HSBC have exchanged proposed stipulations to Loan File and Loan-Guideline matches in 13 out of 17 Securitizations; the parties have agreed to the best representation currently available for 67 Loan Files and 212 Guidelines. To allow additional time to stipulate to additional Loan Files and Loan-Guideline matches, the parties request an extension until May 31, 2013.

Citi. FHFA and Citi have exchanged proposed stipulations to Loan File and Loan-Guideline matches in all 10 Securitizations; the parties have agreed as to the best representation currently available for 653 Loan Files and 760 Guidelines. To allow additional time to stipulate to additional Loan Files and Loan-Guideline matches, the parties request an extension until May 31, 2013.

Barclays. FHFA and Barclays have exchanged proposed stipulations to Loan File and Loan-Guideline matches in all eight Securitizations; the parties have agreed as to the best representation currently available for 543 Loan Files and 443 Guidelines. To allow additional time to stipulate to additional Loan Files and Loan-Guideline matches, the parties request an extension until May 31, 2013.

Nomura. FHFA and Nomura have exchanged proposed stipulations to Loan File and Loan-Guideline matches for 282 out of 700 Sample Loans; the parties have agreed as to the best representation currently available for 228 Loan Files and 282 Guidelines. To allow additional time to stipulate to additional Loan Files and Loan-Guideline matches, the parties request an extension until May 31, 2013.

First Horizon. FHFA and First Horizon have exchanged proposed stipulations to Loan File and Loan-Guideline matches for all five Securitizations; they have agreed as to the best representation currently available for 471 Loan Files and 485 Guidelines. To allow additional time to stipulate to additional Loan Files and Loan-Guideline matches, the parties request an extension until May 31, 2013.

SG Americas. FHFA and SG Americas have exchanged proposed stipulations to Loan File and Loan-Guideline matches for each of the 300 original sample loans; the parties have agreed as to the best representation currently available for 225 Loan Files, 300 underwriting credit policy documents, and 298 underwriting matrix documents. The parties are continuing to discuss the 75 remaining Loan File disagreements. On or before May 17, 2013, SG Americas will propose the remaining 100 proposed stipulations to Loan File and Loan-Guideline matches for the supplemental sample from the SGMS 2006-OPT2 Securitization.

Requested Relief

As discussed above, FHFA and Defendants in the Credit Suisse, Deutsche Bank, Goldman Sachs, Morgan Stanley, HSBC, Citi, Barclays, Nomura, and First Horizon cases respectfully request an extension until May 31, 2013 of (1) the deadline for the production, identification, and stipulation of the Loan Files and applicable Guidelines for all Securitizations; and (2) the date after which re-underwriting costs may be shifted based on the late production of Loan Files or Guidelines (set forth in Paragraph 4 of the Supplemental ESO). The parties can amend their proposed stipulations up to that same deadline.

FHFA and SG Americas respectfully request an extension until May 13, 2013 of (1) the deadline for the production, identification, and stipulation of the Loan Files and applicable Guidelines for all Securitizations; and (2) the date after which re-underwriting costs may be shifted based on the late production of Loan Files or Guidelines (set forth in Paragraph 4 of the Supplemental ESO). The parties can amend their proposed stipulations up to that same deadline.

Finally, FHFA and Ally respectfully request an extension until May 15, 2013 of (1) the deadline for the production, identification, and stipulation of the Loan Files and applicable Guidelines for all Securitizations; and (2) the date after which re-underwriting costs may be shifted based on the late production of Loan Files or Guidelines (set forth in Paragraph 4 of the Supplemental ESO). The parties can amend their proposed stipulations up to that same deadline.

FHFA is available to discuss this report at the Court's convenience.

Very truly yours,
